

International Travel to the U.S.: Dialogue on the Current State of Play

THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 2004
8:45 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (Registration starts at 8:00 a.m.)
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE – MAIN AUDITORIUM
14th Street & Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20230

In these dynamic times, the United States government strives to strike a balance between its border security and economic security. This conference will highlight the issues and changes influencing the temporary entry policies of the United States. Representatives from private industry, Foreign Embassies, and Associations that are interested in the various issues associated with the United States entry policy are invited to participate in this conference sponsored by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

The full day conference on June 10, 2004, will include presentations from government leaders from the Department of State, Department of Homeland Security, Capitol Hill and the Department of Commerce along with business leaders directly involved with temporary entry policy. The conference will address the impact on business, international trade, and government relations. Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions of and to listen to different views from experts in the field of United States' entry policy.
